

CONNECT

WITH YOUR FUTURE

- Improve reading, writing and math skills
- Get your high school diploma
- Learn what you need to get that job

Join Literacy Connection, a FREE education program for young adults ages 16-24. Enroll today and:

- Work toward your GED
- Find out about internships and job training
- Build your computer skills
- Participate in community projects and trips
And more!

Literacy Connection includes:

- Pre-GED classroom instruction
Monday-Friday, 10:00am-2:30pm
- Group activities and community projects
scheduled around class time

Students also receive:

- Daily lunch allowance
- Free MetroCards
- Assistance with family and life issues
(child care, money management, legal aid, etc.)

Eligibility:

16-24 year olds who are not employed or attending school. Assessment test required to determine appropriate class level. Applicants will be screened to confirm eligibility.

Program funding is provided by The Office of the Mayor through The Center for Economic Opportunity.

START THIS JANUARY!

Spaces open at two locations:

Mott Haven Library
West Farms Library

REGISTER AT:

Mott Haven Library

321 East 140th Street at Alexander Avenue
Tel: (718) 401-7453

Monday – Wednesday – Friday

10:30am - 12:00pm and
3:00pm - 4:30pm

Students may also register by appointment.
Call (718) 401-7453 to schedule with a
Literacy Connection staff member.

The New York Public Library
www.nypl.org

Phipps Community Development Corporation
www.phippsny.org